

Evening Telegraph

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1861

SPIRIT OF THE NEW YORK PRESS

Leading Editorials from the New York Paper This Morning.

THE NATION'S STRUGGLE—THE NATION'S TRIUMPH.

From the "Spirit of the New York Press."

We have no doubt that our armies will be a dreadful task before us, but we have a doubt that President Lincoln will be re-elected to the Chief Magistrate of the Nation. But it is not enough that we believe in the ultimate success of our military efforts; it is not enough that Mr. Lincoln be here to lead us. It is supremely desirable that the Rebellion be promptly and forever crushed, and that the popular patriotism sustain and reinforce our arms to that end. And it is supremely desirable that Mr. Lincoln be re-elected by a popular majority so great, and by an expression of opinion so decisive, as to show indubitably the power and determination of the broad sentiment of the nation.

It is not enough that the Unionists attempt to carry the majority number of States; but they are not strong in every State.

1. It is not enough that the Unionists have an interest in the matter; but there should be an extreme enthusiasm, a personal effort. We should show to the Rebels the strength of our purpose, and its unflinching character. We should endeavor to recruit the ranks of the organization to which they belong.

2. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is appalled to his senses.

3. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

4. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

5. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

6. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

7. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

8. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

9. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

10. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

11. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

12. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

13. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

14. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

15. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

16. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

17. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

18. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

19. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

20. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

21. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

22. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

23. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

24. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

25. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

26. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

27. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

28. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

29. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

30. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

31. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

32. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

33. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

34. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

35. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

36. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

37. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

38. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

39. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

40. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

41. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

42. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

43. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

44. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

45. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

46. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

47. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-

palled to his senses.

48. However, who a commanding officer of a

of these volunteers organization receives a

summons of an enlisted man is ap-